BLAZIN' FIDDLES

With access to:

SPACE

We know artists need space to develop work. Access to our studios can be limited due to our classes programme but we have many other places across the site where you can make, reflect and be inspired.

DECISION-MAKING

We will strive to be up-front and honest about financial terms, timescales, opportunities and limitations in our decision making. You should always ask us if you feel you're not getting all the information you expect, or in a timely way.

TICKETS

We know that working as an independent artist or small company can be isolating. We know the best way to feed your creativity is to see work. From May 2019 if you are a Highland-based artist or company you can access a limited number of tickets to any production in the Empire Theatre for £10 or the One Touch Theatre for £5. To find out more and to access these tickets please email Nicola: ngray@eden-court.co.uk

FAVOURABLE FINANCIAL DEALS

We're proud to support Highland talent, especially those who we feel have the potential to represent our region nationally and around the world. We will try our best to programme your work and take more financial risk if we are excited by your work for our audiences.

ADVOCACY

As we're out-and-about around the region, the country and further afield we will advocate for your work and help you to promote it amongst our peers.

EACH OTHER

We know Eden Court is a hub for artists across the region. Throughout 2019 we will be finding more opportunities for you to come together, network, share ideas, share stories and opportunities.
