- 🧘 Relaxed Performance

I'm delighted to welcome you to Eden Court's first in-depth season brochure in over two years – and my first one since joining as Chief Executive. After the recent closure periods experienced across the industry, it's been a real thrill to be able to welcome audiences back to fully enjoy live experiences together over the past few months.

Our upcoming season offers so many brilliant shows to entice you back, including West-End smash hit, SIX The Musical, the next phase in the James plays saga with James IV – Queen of the Fight and comedy from household names such as Jack Dee and Jason Manford.

We're delighted to once again be hosting Scotland's national companies – with National Theatre of Scotland presenting Burn, created by Alan Cumming and Steven Hoggett, Coppélia from Scottish Ballet, The Verdi Collection from Scottish Opera and a Viennese Gala from RSNO.

We've also got a great offer for families this season – firstly there will be the return of Eden Court's much-loved panto, which this year will be Peter Pan, followed by Scottish Ballet's
The Snow Queen in January and Around The World in 80 Days in February.

In our Coming Soon section we're excited to announce some of the biggest shows that will be hitting our stages in 2023 – including The Mousetrap, which will come to Eden Court as part of its 70th Anniversary Tour, Edinburgh festival hit Pride & Prejudice (Sort Of) and the return of Eden Court's very own musical, produced in partnership with Raw Material,
The Stamping Ground.

Beyond live performance, the Inverness Film Festival will celebrate its 20th year in 2022 and will, once again, showcase the best cinema from around the globe. We also have a whole host of classes within our Studio Programme for both young people and adults to take part in – so if you are looking for your own outlet to be creative, please do check them out.

All this is just a taster of the many shows and activities that Eden Court has on offer. Inside you will find close to 100 different theatre experiences, featuring everything from large-scale musicals to ballet, opera, comedy and music. I hope the variety and scope of these events illustrates the strength of Eden Court's continuing ambition to bring the most exciting live performance to the Highlands.

Lastly, I want to say a heartfelt thank you to everyone who has made me feel so welcome since joining Eden Court in March. I have already heard from so many people about what a special place Eden Court is to them.
I'm incredibly excited for everything that Eden Court is going to achieve in the future – to work with the brilliant team here to make it happen –
and to share it all with you.

Burn

NATIONAL THEATRE OF SCOTLAND,
THE JOYCE THEATER + EDINBURGH
INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL

Thu 08 – Sat 10

A co-production between the National Theatre of Scotland, New York City's The Joyce Theater and Edinburgh International Festival, Burn is a new creation from the legendary Scottish actor and author Alan Cumming, and the Olivier award-winning and internationally renowned choreographer Steven Hoggett (Black Watch, Harry Potter and the Cursed Child).

This brand-new piece of dance theatre challenges the 'biscuit tin' image of Scotland's National Bard and goes beyond the poetry to focus on the man himself - his poverty, his personal tragedy, his struggles with mental health and his spectacular success.

Wed 07

Allan Henderson leads a celebration of the storytelling tradition in the Highlands and Islands and the music that goes with it. Tales of hidden treasure, fairies and bòcain mingle easily with stories both humorous and tragic. Why was the death of a Swedish king mourned so deeply in the Gaidhealtachd and who was the Gaelic speaker that ran with the John Dillinger gang? All will be revealed, to the accompaniment of some of the best traditional music around.

The Paul McKenna Band

Fri 09

Scotland's Paul McKenna has long been ranked among our finest younger singers and songwriters, armed with a powerful yet intensely emotive voice and passionate social conscience, often expressed through his songs, a combination that's brought frequent comparisons to the great Dick Gaughan.

He and his band – comprising Robbie Greig (fiddle), Conal McDonagh (pipes/whistles), Conor Markey (banjo/bouzouki/guitars) and Ewan Baird (percussion) – will draw on both Scottish and Irish roots, in a dynamic, full-bodied array of original and traditional material, along with songs by like-minded authors.

PIAF – written and performed by Christine Bovill

Thu 13

No glamour. No gimmicks. No pretence. Nothing but a voice, singing of life's triumphs and tragedies. Who was Edith Piaf? And how did she come to represent the spirit of Paris like no-one before or since?

Christine Bovill hated French at school until the chance discovery of an Edith Piaf record. This would prove a seminal moment in the life of the 14 year-old girl from Glasgow – and set Christine on a fateful path into the world of France's greatest musical icon. This new performance now comes to the Highlands in a funny, poignant and moving theatrical homage to one of France's most endearing icons.

"The most uplifting new British musical I have ever had the privilege to watch"

★★★★★ EVENING STANDARD

SIX

Tue 08 – Sat 12

DIVORCED ★ BEHEADED ★ LIVE!

Reigning on Broadway and in the West End, the international smash hit musical SIX makes its royal debut in Inverness!

Winner of the 2022 Whatsonstage Award for 'Best West End Show' with a Gold-Disk winning album, this sell-out Tudor take-off has 'an incredibly strong and powerful message' (WhatsOnStage) and is 'pure entertainment' (The New York Times).

From Tudor Queens to Pop Princesses, the six wives of Henry VIII take to the mic to tell their tales, remixing five hundred years of historical heartbreak into an 80-minute celebration of 21st century girl power. These Queens may have green sleeves but their lipstick is rebellious red. Think you know the rhyme, think again...

The 20th Inverness Film Festival

PRESENTED BY EDEN COURT

Fri 04 – Thu 10

This year marks two decades of the Inverness Film Festival, bringing a programme of the very best international cinema to the heart of the Highlands every year. The world has changed immeasurably in that time, reflected through a dazzling array of big screen experiences that we have shared with the Highland's passionate film-going community - right here at Eden Court.

The IFF is the place to see a premiere before it takes flight and becomes a future cult classic or Oscar-winner. Be the first to see a new movie from your favourite director, or take a chance on something you've never heard of – you might just end up finding your new favourite film.

This year, we'll continue to programme the best new titles across countries and genres, whilst reflecting on the last 20 years (in which we've screened over 750 films) with a best of the fest strand covering some of our all time favourite IFF titles.

The Snow Queen

A GLITTERING WINTER TALE

The Snow Queen

SCOTTISH BALLET

Wed 25 - Sat 28

From the bustle of a winter's market to the shivers of a fairytale forest, take a journey to the Snow Queen's palace, where you'll find her surrounded by the icy fragments of an enchanted mirror. Along the way you'll meet a colourful cast of characters, from young lovers parted by a spell to a circus ringmaster with a few tricks up his sleeve. This story of love and friendship is sure to delight the whole family.

Scottish Ballet's spectacular and much-loved production of The Snow Queen returns to the stage, after its sell-out tour in 2019.

This glittering production is inspired by Hans Christian Andersen's classic tale – which was also the basis for Frozen. Set to the music of Rimsky-Korsakov which will be performed live by the full Scottish Ballet Orchestra.

RSNO Viennese Gala

ROYAL SCOTTISH NATIONAL ORCHESTRA

Thu 12

Vienna, the city of dreams, where melodies are as sweet as Sachertorte and dance rhythms sparkle like champagne! It simply wouldn't be New Year without the music of Vienna's most famous son Johann Strauss and his friends. Let the Royal Scottish National Orchestra whirl you away to a world of elegant waltzes, playful polkas, and good old-fashioned operetta romance from a real RSNO favourite - tenor Jamie MacDougall.

Scotland's National Orchestra and conductor David Niemann will sweep you off your feet with favourites including the overture to Die Fledermaus, On the Beautiful Blue Danube and the Thunder and Lightning Polka.

TILTED WIG + YORK THEATRE ROYAL

Fri 10 - Sun 12 Feb

By Jules Verne

Adapted and directed by Juliet Forster

Join the raggle-taggle band of travelling circus performers as they embark on their most daring feat yet: to recreate the adventures of Phileas Fogg as he sets off on his race around the world. But wait? Who is this Nellie Bly biting at his heels? We can't have an actual real-life woman win this race!

Come sit back and enjoy as these skilled performers traverse every country, embrace each character and navigate each mode of transport as fact clashes with fiction in this madcap adventure around the globe.

Pride & Prejudice* (*sort of)

Tue 14 – Sat 18 Mar

By Isobel McArthur after Jane Austen

Since opening in Glasgow, Pride and Prejudice (sort of) took London's West End by storm winning the Olivier Award for Best Comedy and now it returns to Scotland. Pride and Prejudice (sort of) is a unique and audacious retelling of Jane Austen's most iconic love story. Men, money and microphones will be fought over in this irreverent but affectionate adaptation, where the stakes couldn't be higher when it comes to romance.

It's the 1800s.

It's party time.

The Stamping Ground

RAW MATERIAL AND EDEN COURT HIGHLANDS PRESENT

Fri 05 – Sat 13 May

An uplifting new musical, featuring the songs of Runrig.

When together-forever couple Euan and Annie return home, they're seeking a 'fresh start' for their teenage daughter. But there's a heatwave in the Highlands and they soon find themselves lost in this once familiar place, now filled with more tourists than residents.

As relationships ignite and smoulder, Euan and Annie find themselves swept into a battle to save the heart of the community. But can they save each other?

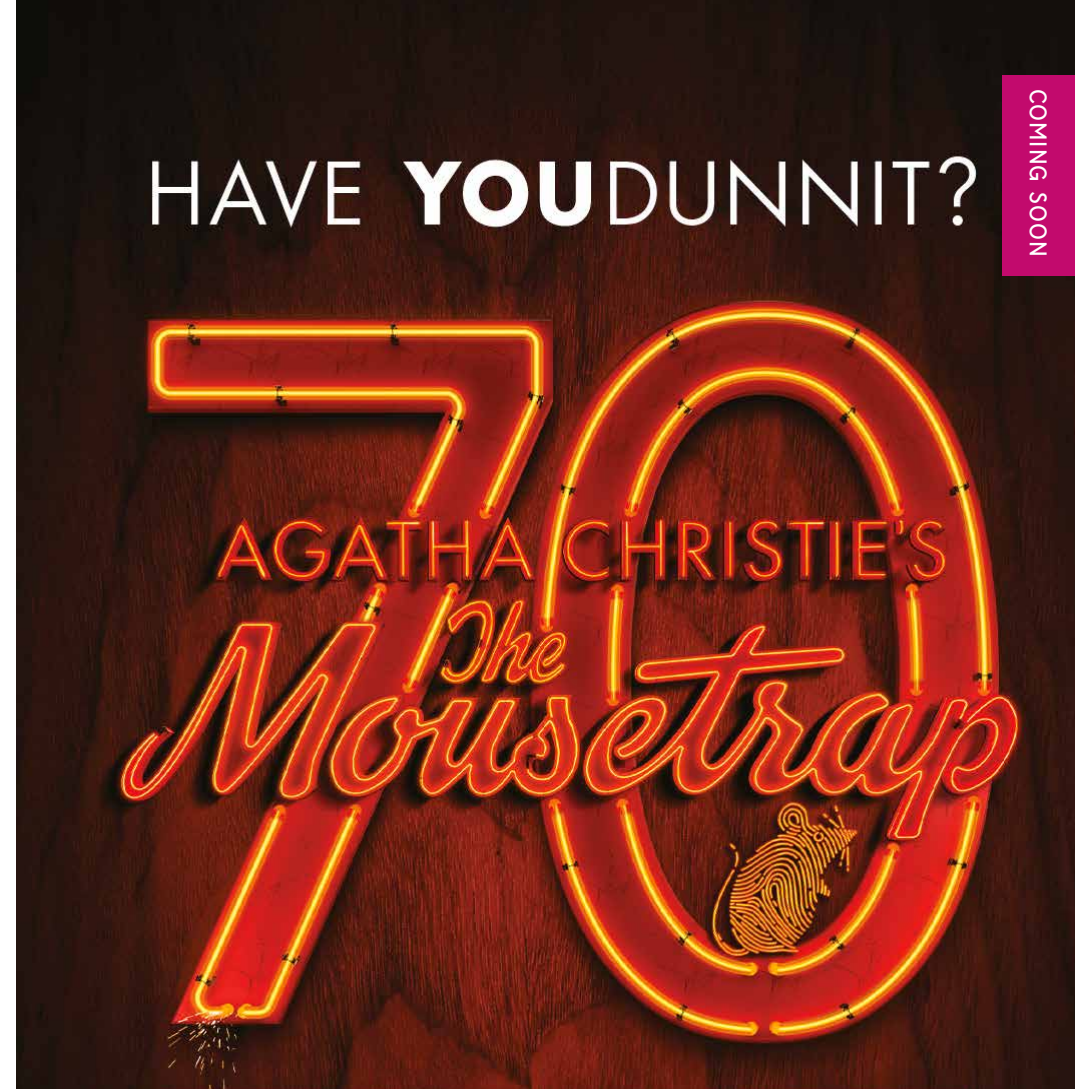

THE STAMPING GROUND is a story about love, life and the land.
