WELCOME TO FÀILTE

A warm welcome to our March to September 2023 brochure. We invite you to explore a host of live performances over the coming pages – from musicals, drama and comedy to dance, opera and talks.

For fans of musicals we have Sister Act, Buddy - The Buddy Holly Story and the return of Eden Court's very own four-star musical, co-produced with Raw Material, The Stamping Ground, launching a Scottish tour.

Some classic plays are back on stage, including Abigail's Party and The Mousetrap, alongside new works such as Kidnapped and Dracula: Mina's Reckoning – both brought to us from National Theatre of Scotland. From the other national companies we welcome Scottish Opera with Bizet's Carmen and Scottish Ballet with A Streetcar Named Desire.

One of the shows I'm most looking forward to is *Pride and Prejudice* (*Sort Of)* in March. The show won the 2022 Olivier Award for Best Comedy and its Scottish writer, Isobel McArthur, recently received the Evening Standard Theatre Award for Emerging Talent. This affectionate adaptation of Jane Austen's novel, featuring classic pop songs, is exactly the kind of fun escapist show that many of us are looking for at the moment.

Eden Court's opening hours have changed in 2023 – now opening at 4pm on Mondays and Tuesdays and 11am the rest of the week. This change has been necessary due to the significantly increased costs that we, alongside all businesses, are experiencing in this climate. However, it in no way represents a closing of our doors to you, rather we aim to welcome even more people to Eden Court in 2023.

Our You Are Welcome campaign is designed to do just that. We are encouraging everyone in the community to use Eden Court as a Warm Space - where you can study, read, see an exhibition, let your mind wander or stay warm on cold days. We have a free, bookable Community Table available for local groups to meet. We are also offering a lower ticket price (£5.50) for cinema and OneTouch Theatre shows for those on low income, in receipt of benefits or whose financial situation is unstable and our Engagement programme offers a pay it forward scheme, which we use to provide access to those for whom price is a barrier. Finally, Eden Court Connect is our new artist support scheme available to Highland-based artists, producers and creative industry professionals, offering a wide range of benefits, including discounted theatre tickets, networking events, mentoring sessions and rehearsal space.

I hope that you can find something to take part in and enjoy - through You Are Welcome, the shows in this brochure, the dozens of different films that are screened in our cinemas each month, or the range of classes on offer in our studios. Eden Court is proud of the role that it plays in the Highlands as your local arts centre – we look forward to welcoming you in 2023.

Rebecca Holt

Chief Executive, on behalf of the team at Eden Court

A Streetcar Named Desire

SCOTTISH BALLET
 Fri 21 - Sat 22

Scottish Ballet's hugely popular, award-winning production of A Streetcar Named Desire returns to Scotland for the first time since 2015. This astonishing take on Tennessee Williams' masterpiece is narrative ballet at its very best, with white-hot choreography, devastating drama, pitch-perfect period design and a sizzling score used to tell the iconic story.

In steamy 1940s New Orleans, fading Southern belle Blanche DuBois moves into her sister Stella's apartment. Stella's brutish husband Stanley sees that Blanche is not what she appears to be, and sets out to destroy her...

Scottish Ballet's stylish production breathes new life into the classic tale, with graceful waltzes at the DuBois family home, electrifying lindy jives in a Louisiana nightclub, and intense duets in the caged heat of Stella and Stanley's apartment.

Abigail's Party

by Mike Leigh

LONDON CLASSIC THEATRE

Wed 17 - Sat 20

It was 1977, the year of skin-tight polyester, the Queen's Silver Jubilee and Saturday Night Fever. The Sex Pistols were storming up the charts, skateboarding was the latest craze and Angela Rippon danced with Morecambe and Wise.

And at Hampstead Theatre in London, Mike Leigh and his cast were putting the finishing touches to Abigail's Party, ferocious black comedy and landmark of twentieth century theatre.

In her suburban living room, Beverly prepares for the arrival of her guests. She and husband Laurence will play host to neighbours Angela, Tony and Sue. As the alcohol flows and the 'nibbles' are handed around, Mike Leigh's ruthless, achingly funny examination of 1970s British life begins...

Abigail's Party was premiered at the Hampstead Theatre in 1977, with the role of Beverly being immortalised by Alison Steadman. A record 16 million people watched its broadcast on Play for Today, underlining its status as a true modern classic and national treasure.

Bizet's Carmen

SCOTTISH OPERA

Tue 23, Thu 25 + Sat 27

Georges Bizet's show-stopping fiery opera of jealousy, lust, and life outside the dictates of society is boldly updated in this new production. With one hit melody after another – including the Habanera, Flower Aria and Toreador Song – Carmen has musical riches for all.

Director John Fulljames (Nixon in China 2020) sets the story amidst the unrest and upheavals of 1970s Spain, where an investigation into Carmen's murder unfolds alongside the rollercoaster of events that lead to her death. With a new English translation, this is Carmen as you've never seen it before!

With acclaimed Lithuanian mezzo-soprano Justina Gringytė in the title role and featuring four of Scottish Opera's 22/23 Emerging Artists – Zoe Drummond, Lea Shaw, Osian Wyn Bowen and Colin Murray – don't miss the chance to see the Company's ingenious twist on this timeless masterpiece.

Dracula: Mina's Reckoning

NATIONAL THEATRE OF SCOTLAND AND ABERDEEN PERFORMING ARTS IN ASSOCIATION WITH BELGRADE THEATRE, COVENTRY

Thu 28 – Sat 30

Protect your loved ones from the claws of a beast

Under the buzzing lights of a psychiatric hospital in Aberdeenshire in 1897, Mina Murray recounts her encounters with the most terrifying of beasts: Dracula. A throng of patients listen with bated breath as they are transported to a world where immortality and ultimate power is possible, even for women – but with terrible consequences...

Not for the faint-hearted, Morna Pearson's adaptation of Bram Stoker's classic tale is filled with her trademark humour and taste for the strange and grotesque. This breathtaking gothic production transposes the action to Scotland amid the wild beauty of the landscapes of the northeast which originally inspired the novel. With an all-women and non-binary ensemble cast we witness the addiction, intoxication, and empowerment of Mina.

Miss this contemporary re-telling at your peril...
