If you want to go quickly, go alone. If you want to go far, go together. AFRICAN PROVERB

In the opening month of our new season we present the critically-acclaimed Barber Shop Chronicles. This stunning, heart-warming and hilarious play moved me deeply when I saw it at the National Theatre in London and it's an honour to now be presenting it to you all in the Highlands. I've had many conversations with audience members since joining Eden Court and one of the clearest requests is for more high-quality drama and theatre so over the next six months we will deliver it to you in spades.
Delve into our new brochure and we'll see you at the theatre.

The quote above connects to the setting and themes of Barber Shop Chronicles but also to the type of organisation I want to run. I talk a lot to my team about wanting us to be an audience and artist focussed organisation.
We demonstrate this in our new brochure by introducing you to eight folk who love and visit us often. They kick-off each month and share a little about why they love Eden Court. Thank you to Eilidh, Gail, Ben, Torquil, Zadok, Mike, Lynn and Ewan for their contributions to our new brochure. Together they offer a snap-shot of the diversity of the community of people who call this place a second home. Everyone is welcome at Eden Court. Come and join in.

Beyond this page you can learn more about joining Eden Court Friends and the amazing benefits this offers. Over the coming months we'll be delivering a higher volume of priority booking to Friends as we present bigger, more ambitious work at Eden Court. We'd love you to consider joining Friends and in doing so helping us to achieve our ambitions.

Over the last few weeks there has been some discussion in the press about our future ambitions for Eden Court. Yes, we are thinking about the type of organisation we need to be in the future and reflecting on everything we know about our building a decade after the last capital development that transformed the venue. Over the next six months we will start a conversation with you all to get your views on what works and what could work better at Eden Court. In 2026 we will celebrate our 50th birthday and so we're already thinking about where we'd like to be by then.

There is so much to look forward to over the next few months and I hope we have programmed work that excites all of you. I've especially focussed on our programme in-and-around the festive season. In addition to our brilliant panto I wanted to ensure there were fantastic shows for everyone during the winter months.
November really is the month of star-casting and world-class shows. We present George Costigan in Faith Healer both here in Inverness and across the region; Strictly-winner Joe McFadden in Priscilla Queen of the Desert, and Helen George in My Cousin Rachel. We're also delighted to be collaborating with Dance North on presenting Montreal-based dance company Le Patin Libre, these extraordinary ice-skating dancers are not to be missed at Inverness Ice Rink and Moray Leisure Centre. After panto Scottish Ballet bring us their new production of The Snow Queen that is guaranteed to sparkle.

We welcome in 2020 with the return of the global smash-hit musical Buddy followed by stunning new work from Dundee Rep Oor Wullie and Rona Munro's Frankenstein. We then bring the season to a close with one of the world's best dancers, Carlos Acosta performing with his company Acosta Danza. Seeing Carlos dance is a once in a generation opportunity. Let's ensure we give him the very best Highland welcome.

At the back of the brochure you'll find a hint of what the rest of 2020 has to offer - world-class musicals, critically-acclaimed and legendary plays.

We're living in a time of lots of uncertainty.
I hope Eden Court provides a place for you to relax, escape and discover.

NATIONAL THEATRE, FUEL AND

ASSOCIATION WITH THE ROUNDHOUSE

Thu 17 – Sat 19

A new play by Inua Ellams

Following two sell-out runs at the National Theatre and a world tour, Inua Ellams' acclaimed Barber Shop Chronicles comes to Eden Court.

Newsroom, political platform, local hotspot, confession box, preacher-pulpit and football stadium. For generations, African men have gathered in barber shops to discuss the world. These are places where the banter can be barbed and the truth is always telling.

Directed by Olivier award-winning director Bijan Sheibani and designed by Rae Smith (War Horse), Barber Shop Chronicles is a heart-warming, hilarious and insightful new play that leaps from a barber shop in Peckham to Johannesburg, Harare, Kampala, Lagos and Accra over the course of a single day.

SCOTTISH BALLET

Wed 9 + Thu 10

After a thrilling world premiere at the Edinburgh International Festival, don't miss your chance to catch Scottish Ballet's gripping new production of Arthur Miller's The Crucible before its USA tour.

A teenage girl imagines her future. A marriage is tested. Church bells ring, uniting the community in prayer. These are good people; this could be anywhere. They fear the shadows in the forest, but the real monsters are much closer to home.

Ask yourself: when everything is in the balance, what are you prepared to pay for the truth?

Helen Pickett's choreography unleashes the emotional force of Miller's masterpiece, vividly accompanied by the Scottish Ballet Orchestra performing Peter Salem's haunting new score.

Adapted by Joseph O'Connor

Directed by Anthony Banks

Murderess, seducer, thief, enchantress - or merely a woman intent on survival?

Alluring, exotic and unconventional, Countess Rachel Sangalletti travels from Florence to the Ashley Estate in Cornwall, home of her recently deceased husband. Her presence in the house arouses dark suspicions and uncontrollable desires, not least in young Philip, cousin and heir to the Ashley home.

Feverish passion battles reason in this classic Gothic romance set in the wild landscape of the rock-ribbed Cornish coast.

Helen George plays the deliciously enigmatic Rachel. Known for her role as Trixie Franklin in eight series of Call the Midwife, her recent stage credits include After Miss Julie and Love In Idleness.

Anthony Banks was Associate Director at the National Theatre from 2004 – 2014. His many directing credits include The Girl on the Train, Strangers On A Train, Twilight Song, Gaslight, and After Miss Julie.

This menacing psychological thriller by the author of Rebecca and Don't Look Now, enthralled readers when it was first published in 1951 and went on to become an international best seller. This acclaimed adaptation is by Joseph O'Connor whose novels include the international number one best-seller, Star of the Sea.

Power-charged skating that suspends the normal laws of movement and seems to stretch time. Le Patin Libre defy every convention of figure skating to create a new dance form – on ice. In Threshold the charismatic ensemble experiments with the choreographic possibilities of 'the glide' – a state that allows the body to travel motionless at speed through space. Playing with contrast and change, they zoom towards viewers seated on the ice, combining athletic virtuosity with joyous physicality. ROB HEASLIP DANCE

Fri 13 + Sat 14

An endling is an individual that is the last of its species. Once the endling dies, the species becomes extinct. With ENDLING, Rob Heaslip reimagines mourning rituals through dance, vocals, music and design. Popular and folk culture collide in a world where death is tinged with acid pink, green and purple.

Criocharan - an neach mu dheireadh dhe a sheòrsa. Le a bhàs, thig bàs air an t-seòrsa sin. Ann an ENDLING, tha Rob Heaslip ag ath-bheòthachadh sgeulachdan caoinidh tro dhannsa, guth, ceòl agus iomhaigheachd. Tha an seann-nos agus an nòs-ùr a' coinneachadh ann an saoghal far a bheil am bàs air a shoillseachadh le sradagan dathach, dealrach.
